Additional UN Security Council Statements In addition to the legally binding UNSCRs, the UN Security Council has also issued at least 30 statements from the President of the UN Security Council regarding Saddam Hussein's continued violations of UNSCRs.

Spring Statement

This practice was inherited from the Colonial Era when the British Parliament would pass the budget in the noon followed by India in the evening of the day. It is also a parliamentary tradition that whilst making the Budget Speech the Chancellor may drink whatever he or she wishes, including alcohol which is otherwise forbidden. As noted in the resolutions, Saddam Hussein was required to fulfill many obligations beyond the withdrawal of Iraqi forces from Kuwait.

The Speech is followed by a debate, which can last for several days.

Budget Day

In 2020 the spring statement was upgraded to a following cancellation of autumn 2019's budget. After the monarch gives the speech from the throne, announcing the government's agenda for the coming year, the National Budget and the Budget Memorandum are presented later that day to the House of Representatives and are brought in a ceremonial briefcase by the minister of finance.

The Fed

This briefcase tradition was introduced in 1947 by imitation of the British tradition. The Act back-dates its provisions, so that they take effect either from Budget Day itself or from the start of the fiscal year. However, former chancellor announced in the 2016 Autumn Statement that the budget would from 2018 be moved to October as an 'autumn budget' and the statement moved to March but as a less important convention.
