AN ESSAY: Good, evil and terrorism

How the Unrelenting Threat of Death Shapes Our Behavior

Some examples of early attacks specifically intended as made-for-television events include the September 1972 kidnapping and murder of Israeli athletes at the Munich Olympics and the December 1975 raid on OPEC headquarters in Vienna.

The Good Terrorist

Ergo, civilization has become accustomed to chronic terrorism and consequently is constantly living at a continued state of a heightened sensitivity and over excitability. This is not a new problem. Terrorist attacks are also relatively easy to conduct, especially if the assailant is not concerned about escaping after the attack.

'The hunger strike terrorists': The British press and the hunger strikes

It is designed for the general educated audience interested in recent events, the history leading up to them, and the prospects for dealing with the after effects. And such negative labeling also lulls us into thinking it is random, not comparable to anything we do understand, and is disrespectful of the high level of reasoned intellect behind these deeds, however distorted it may be.
