For the Word became flesh; that which was from the beginning, which the apostles saw, which they heard with their ears, and which their hands handled, of the Word of life; for the life was manifested, so that there was seen that eternal life, which was with the Father.

Such are then joined by God in his church according to the original order; and this is called, marrying in the Lord. Nevertheless, Samson thus became in a sense a pointer to our Lord, when he gave his life voluntarily to save his people Judges 16:30ff. He believed that a prophetic line had begun with Noah and Abraham which continued in a steady succession of prophets sent to various peoples including the Arab tribes.

All this was granted them by the munificent hand of God, on account of the constancy of their faith, from which they could by no means be made to swerve, nor brought to waver in it; on account of their living hope, which begat in their souls a longing for the future riches, so that they were enabled to esteem the present ones as of little worth and to forget them; and on account of their unquenchable love for God, his holy truth, and their beloved fellow-believers, whereby their souls were kindled into a flame far more intense than were their bodies through physical fire though these were reduced to ashes. John the Baptist also describes himself in a similar way as the friend of the bridegroom John 3:29. Übersetzung Als Vollendung Der Auslegung : Studien Zur Genesis-Septuaginta.

Interestingly, apart from inclusion in the Qur'an of Ishmael in lists of prophets Surah al-Anam 6:86, Surah Al-Anbya 21:85 , the only reference to him by name is found in Surah Baqara Cow 2:125, 127.
