Jane Kenyon

Though poems of the movement were not necessarily related to love, a couple of Romantic poems do feature on the list. Although scholars had generally believed that An Elegiac Poem, on the Death of that Celebrated Divine, and Eminent Servant of Jesus Christ, the Reverend and Learned George Whitefield. Earth was awakened after years of endurance, Forgotten feelings were rekindled anew, God was man's only path and assurance, Hope was the foundation of the world we knew.
