The Royal Commission will file its final report by June 30, 2003. The Moores Administration recognized that some serious action must be taken in Labrador, and less than two months after the August by-election the Royal Commission on Labrador was appointed, chaired by the Director of Extension Services of Memorial University, Donald Snowden. We see a confident people, with a strong attachment to this place and one another, ready to work hard to make this province better.

Recommendations

In so doing, the Royal Commission is providing a forum that encourages frank and open discussion of opportunities and challenges among people who work with a particular issue on a daily basis. Our population has been on a decline due to the lowest birth rate in Canada and out-migration. An amendment to Term 17 of the Terms of Union, dealing with education rights in Newfoundland and Labrador, enacted following a provincial plebiscite in 1995.

Ocean Ranger Inquiry

Resolutions 2, 9, 12, 17, 33, 34, 62, 63, 64 and 66 contemplated Newfoundland's joining Confederation. Roy Romanow, has been working to develop policies and measures to ensure the long-term sustainability of an universally accessible, publicly-funded health system.

News Releases

The Commission has developed a Research and Consultation Plan. The Ocean Ranger was drilling an exploration well on the Grand Banks of Newfoundland for Mobil Oil of Canada, Ltd with 84 crew members onboard when it sank. Dorion debunks the nationalist myths concerning the boundary issue.
