John Locke (disambiguation)

The rights-claim advanced by indigenous peoples, contrarily, seeks to force their world-view directly into the political traditions of Western juridical discourse. Every one, as he is bound to preserve himself, and not to quit his station willfully, so by the like reason, when his own preservation comes not in competition, ought he, as much as he can, to preserve the rest of mankind, and may not, unless it be to do justice on an offender, take away, or impair the life, or what tends to the preservation of the life, liberty, health, limb, or goods of another. Stone, nature could enjoy rights -and thus be legally defended in court- on the grounds that it cannot defend itself.

In the opinion of Durning the Lockean social contract was pre-political but not pre-social.
