A chronicle of the first thirteen years of the reign of King Edward the Fourth, (Book, 1839) [tools.github.ffxiv.cn]

Scope and Contents The Halliwell-Phillipps Collection includes 16th-century works by Italian, French and Spanish authors. The collection includes manuscripts and typescripts of most of Wain's published novels, short stories, volumes of poetry, plays, and criticism. His papers consist of lectures notes and manuscripts of articles on Shakespeare, Scott, and a wide range of poetic subjects; speeches and reviews; correspondence, personal papers, and some photographs.

Halliwell

Beginning at the age of only 16, between 1836 and 1837, he contributed 47 articles to The Parthenon. When no visitors or social engagements interfered, the two spent their evenings over Shakespeare, working together until about eleven when she retired to bed, leaving him alone with his books and his pipe until two o'clock in the morning.

There, he was awarded a mathematical prize and scholarship, and he acted as Librarian. Catalogue of the important library of the late J.

James Halliwell

While the records show his continued active interest in the library--discussions of book purchases, establishment of departmental libraries, and personal gifts of books and donations to current library expenses--the presentation of the University Library remains the high mark of his career on that committee.
