Silverlight in Action

Take PageDimension With PageDimension equals to, let's say, fifty, the ListBox will never contain more than 50 items.

Microsoft Silverlight

Note also that the MaxLength displayed under the textbox is actually coming from the TextBox itself the 140 in the label is not, however. We first import the System.

Silverlight

Note: You cannot nest a Popup control within another Popup. Do not let this post deter you from Windows 7. And although this convenience may be nice in the living room, it's often viewed as a requirement within web-based applications.

Silverlight in Action Book Update

And, of course, it's still a beta version. These event handlers empower you to load all kinds of content including things like string and media items. The coverage of Olympics events—built using Microsoft's Silverlight technology, will let site visitors do much more than start, pause, and stop a video.

Silverlight Streaming in Action

Those personnel don't include those who are doing the video capture, satellite video distribution or image processing for the videos; that's done by NBC with a huge team in Beijing, said Rechs, and it's something NBC has obviously been doing for a long time.
