

Photographic history of North Carolina in the Civil War

University of Arkansas Press - Historic Sites: North Carolina in the Civil War

Description: -

- Local government -- Wales.

North Carolina -- History -- Civil War, 1861-1865 -- Pictorial works.photographic history of North Carolina in the Civil War

- Portraits of conflictphotographic history of North Carolina in the Civil War

Notes: Includes bibliographical references (p. 385-392) and index.

This edition was published in 1997

Filesize: 25.57 MB

Tags: #North #Carolina #County #Photographic #Collection, #circa #1850

Civil War Rosters of North Carolina

Satterthwaite and Bryan Grimes represented Pitt County at the Raleigh Secession Convention on May 20, 1861. This was a hotbed of action that has gone untouched for years.

North Carolina in the American Civil War

The next day the announcement was made public in Raleigh. Charlotte in the Old South The Queen City Charlotte calls itself the Queen City. The Confederate Army of Northern Virginia entrenched around Petersburg and Richmond, and the Union determined to force it to abandon its fortifications by cutting off their main source of supplies through Wilmington.

The History of Charlotte, NC

Partial Union occupation affected all the citizens of the state in one way or another, but it was particularly important to African American slaves who lived near the areas of occupation. Furnace Plantation, Red Bank Plantation, Bushy Park Plantation, Manington Plantation, Melrose Plantation, Pine Grove Plantation, Midway Plantation, Moss Grove Plantation, Parnassus Plantation, Dan Hall Plantation, Dock Horn Plantation, James Ferguson Plantation, Dr. Capturing the island would ensure Union control of both the Albemarle and Pamlico Sounds.

North Carolina in the American Civil War

As the number of former slaves seeking refuge with the army continued to grow, Horace James, the superintendent of Negro affairs in Federal-occupied North Carolina, began establishing contraband camps where people who had left their homes could be temporarily housed.

Historic Sites: North Carolina as a Civil War Battlefield

Crutchfield interviewed five Confederate veterans from Mecklenburg Camp 382, who performed the Rebel yell live on WBT radio, Charlotte, NC.

North Carolina: American Civil War Photos

Caldwell County The materials in this subseries contain images of locations, people, and events taken in Caldwell County. North Carolina Department of Cultural Resources.

Civil War

Bertie County The materials in this subseries contain images of locations, people, and events taken in Bertie County. Mount Hebron from High Peak Tower. The army was split into three columns, each to attack the city from a different vantage point, while the 250-man naval detachment descended the Neuse River from Kinston.

---

Related Books

- [Biography past and present - selections and critical essays, edited by William H. Davenport \[and\] Be](#)
- Ground water survey - Township of East Flamborough and the Village of Waterdown
- Regional variation in intonation
- Selling with science & soul - increase your sales by applying the latest research on selling & the t
- Digital fundamentals - experiments and concepts with CPLDs