United States foreign policy in the Middle East

That this attorney general cannot be relied on to follow the law! And so he accurately deduced that this would drive his numbers up with some segment of his base. By contrast only 22% of both Democrats and independents subscribed to that view in 2004, down from 28% among Democrats in 2001; the view among independents was unchanged between those years. This is not the America I grew up in or you grew up in! Give it to the Democrats.
