PR E HI S TO R IC A R T CHAPTER 1 11 RECOVERING THE PAST How Early Art is Dated Since the first discoveries at Altamira, archaeologists have developed increasingly sophisticated ways of dating cave paintings and other objects. The height of the apartments in the ships is different according to the size of the vessel, and is from six feet to three feet, so that it is impossible to stand erect in most of the vessels, and in some scarcely to sit down in the same posture. The five precepts form the basis of several parts of Buddhist doctrine, both lay and monastic.
