Central Europe

Nevertheless, Western Europe needs some kind of populist reconfiguration of the social space in a democratic direction since otherwise that space is going to be occupied by the horrible movements we were speaking about previously — by Le Pen, Wilders and his Party for Freedom, and the like. According to HMDK leader Arpad Pasza, these people, numbering about 5,000, were forced to dig trenches for Serb forces, and were forbidden to speak Hungarian. Indeed, nationalist movements in this period maintained a revisionist and aggressive foreign policy aimed at regaining the territories lost in the Balkan War or First World War e.
