The Exodus 1947: Israel's First Ship Of State

When the French authorities refused to use force to remove the refugees from the ship, British authorities, fearing adverse public opinion, decided to wait until the passengers disembarked of their own accord.

Exodus 1947: ship That Launched a Historical Marker

The resistance continued for more than 3hours. And, Ruth Gruber, a remarkable Jewish woman, is still alive at 103 years of age. We decided to make it on our own.

Inside Out Documentaries : Exodus '47 with Sean Cole : WBUR Boston

The refugees used tin cans, screwdrivers, potatoes, bottles, wooden boards and metal bars as weapons. After reaching Haifa, British soldiers transferred the exhausted passengers to three freighters, converted to prison ships, and departed Haifa.

'Exodus 1947': a close look at a big story Review: The plight of refugee Jews trying to reach Palestine after World War II, aboard a creaky Chesapeake Bay steamer, is told with passion in PBS documentary.

However, this book by Ruth Gruber tells the appalling story of the ship, Exodus and the heart-breaking story of the displaced Jews that survived the Holocaust. Gruber is a marvelous woman in her own right, earning her Ph.

Exodus 1947: When Brits hit Shoah's victims

United in the struggle for unrestricted immigration! The British have bloodied refugees and crewmen in a vicious struggle twenty-five miles out at sea from Palestine. Ickes, President Roosevelt sent Gruber on a covert mission to escort 1,000 World War II refugees in a secret convoy across the Atlantic to America. The loading completed, the ships headed out to sea.

Exodus 1947: History in the Making: The Israel Forever Foundation

Just as they abstained in the recent UNESCO vote declaring that there is no historical Jewish connection to Jerusalem.

SS Exodus

A sixth generation Yerushalmi, Harel had left home as a teenager and fought the Nazis in Greece as a member a Jewish Brigade attached to the British army. The White Paper meant that Great Britain was sentencing thousands of Jews who could have escaped the Holocaust to death.

Exodus 1947: When Brits hit Shoah's victims

The passengers and crew were ordered to hold fire.
