Other workers, armed with pickaxes, arrived in trucks to aid the agricultural labourers and at the end of it over ten major farms were collectivised. It had promised to hold fresh elections, but with no precise time frame. With the leadership of a revolutionary, Bolshevik party, the workers could have taken power peacefully - reaction was impotent.

Thirty years since the Portuguese Revolution—Part 2

But in what sense was the Portuguese revolution a deeper process of change than the Spanish transition to democracy in this same period? The USec arose from a split in the Fourth International in 1953.

In Defence of Marxism

That the Portuguese bourgeoisie weathered the revolution is thanks to the betrayal of the PCP and its radical hangers-on who tied the working class to the bourgeois parties, the state machine and the MFA. All strikes had to have ballots and a 30-day cooling off period. Spain recognized Portugal's independence in 1143 and the Pope did so in 1179.
