The Lecture for The Prize Chapter 23: “Old Mossy” and the Struggle for Iran

It is, moreover, to be observed that out-and-out reliance upon the rules of logic is not the best method of interpretation of legal or conventional texts, for international life is not based on logic; States follow, above all, their own interests and feelings in their relations with one another.

Divvying Up the Loot: The Iran Oil Consortium Agreement of 1954

The traditional methods of interpretation may be summarized by the following points: 1 It is considered that the texts have an everlasting and fixed character as long as they have not been expressly abrogated. Harriman made his case to Ayatollah Kashani, the leader of the religious right as well, but received only death threats in return.

The top

That does not matter: the important point is that it is bound by the terms used. The Ābādān refinery increased its storage capacity to 6,000,000 barrels by 1938 and to 10,000,000 tons in 1939. From the coup of 1299 Š.

Corporate Social Responsibility: A New Approach to Promoting Integrity and Responsibility, Company Lawyer, 31 6 , 173-179. But that which is even more significant is the fact that in 1928, at a time when Persia was terminating the extraterritorial privileges of aliens, there was an exchange of notes, on May 10th, between the British Minister to Persia and the Persian Acting Foreign Minister, by which it was agreed that the most-favoured-nation provisions of Article IX of the Treaty of 1857 should remain in force. From the outset, Stevens takes a hard line, demanding that the two Iranian oil advisers be replaced by Torkild Rieber, a renowned oil expert who is in fact working for the consortium, and his American legal assistant Wortham Davenport.

Origins of the Umbrella Clause in the International Law of Investment Protection

The denial policy was not killed, but Weber triggered a transformation, and in a few months Eisenhower approved its replacement: NSC 5714.

Anglo

All these provisions were incorporated in the final draft of the resolution. It is necessary to give effect to the words used in their natural and ordinary meaning in the context in which they occur. However, I have thought it useful to draw attention to this point because I hope that the Court's jurisdiction will evolve in the direction indicated, by decisions or by legislation.

I would, there-fore, overrule the objection to the jurisdiction and hold that the Court has jurisdiction to decide as to the submission of the dispute to the arbitration tribunal, in accordance with the submission contained in paragraph a of the Application filed by the United Kingdom. What is in issue is whether the United Kingdom, for the purpose of satisfying the requirements of the Declaration, can invoke a treaty to which it is not a party by way of a treaty to which it is a party. Letter dated 25 October 1956 from the representative of France to the Secretary-General with complaint concerning: Military assistance rendered by the Egyptian Government to the rebels in Algeria See under Algeria for the description.
