Yale study finds expanded jobless benefits did not reduce employment

The emphasis on work disincentives serves to exclude Black and low-wage workers and reflects racist biases against low-income workers of color. As with opposition to a robust Unemployment Insurance system often acts to prevent workers of color from receiving their fair share of unemployment benefits.

Have Enhanced Unemployment Benefits Discouraged Work?

Seasonal workers rely on that money as job opportunities fluctuate throughout the year. Impact of benefit amounts on jobs from recent data To directly assess how the increased UI benefits affected actual worker decisions over the past few months, we turn to the data on job search outcomes.

Disincentive effects of unemployment benefits and the role of caseworkers

Lack of opportunities to work, not a disincentive to work, are keeping unemployment elevated. Kroft and Notowidigdo 2016 confirmed that the disincentive effect from unemployment benefits is sensitive to labor market weakness.

Is Unemployment Bonus Keeping Workers on Sideline?

Stevens is a retired educator, and has used her job doing concessions to make ends meet. But other provisions are less beneficial, work against keeping workers connected to employers, REF and could even harm the economic recovery. All errors are our own.

Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco

While deaths are down dramatically as more Americans get vaccinated, COVID-19 was still causing nearly in early May. First we note that labor market conditions are key; in a weak labor market, job seekers competing for a limited number of available jobs are likely to be relatively unaffected by the level of UI benefits.

The Impact of Additional Unemployment Insurance Benefits on Employment and Economic Recovery: How the $600

Employers More Likely to Lay Off Workers, as Bonus Creates Win-Win. Benefits are determined and administered at the state level.

Disincentive effects of unemployment benefits and the role of caseworkers

This has been interpreted as the disincentive effect of UI benefits; however, unemployed workers typically also have caseworkers assigned who are monitoring and assisting the job search efforts.
