The first Americans: The untold story of the pioneers of the New World

For the Algonquin, Iroquois, Huron, Wampanoag, Mohican, Ojibwa, Ho-chunk Winnebago , Sauk, Fox, and Illinois peoples the most important social and economic unit was the village, which consisted of a few dozen to a few hundred persons.

Where did the first Americans come from? New clues from new studies.

It is also widely believed that they did so via Beringia — an area centred on the Bering Strait between Siberia and Alaska, which was dry land at that time. Because they don't know how big the cenote system is, they've prepared carefully.

First Face of America

Isotope analysis of one of the infected individuals revealed a non-local signal, suggesting origins outside the region of discovery. Here, at last, was a window on the belief system of those first humans in the New World.

How Did Humans Come to the Americas?

Beneath the expectation of observing custom was a patient pursuit of understanding, accommodation, and consensus.
