Unless Your Righteousness Exceeds That of the Pharisees by Kevin Gardner

In a culture where the Pharisees were considered the epitome of righteousness, this would have blown everyone's minds.

Your Righteousness Must Exceed That Of The Pharisees & Saducees Sermon by Matthew Kratz, Matthew 5:20

We have passed from death to life through Christ. Christ perfectly fulfilled the law in a way that the Pharisees, for all their scrupulousness, never could.

How Can Our Righteousness Exceed That Of The Pharisees?

For I assure you that unless your righteousness greatly surpasses that of the Scribes and the Pharisees, you will certainly not find entrance into the Kingdom of the Heavens.

How Can Our Righteousness Surpass the Pharisees?

It's nice to know that when we struggle to meet God's expectations, He's already made provision for us in Jesus. The Pharisees had little in common with the average Jew, and the Pharisees often looked down on everyone else, including the Sadducees, which were another religious group, however the Sadducees regarded the Word of God to be above and beyond the Pharisees oral tradition. However, if being a fundamentalist means protesting at the burial of a dead soldier, or proclaiming that God hates sinners, or believing you are superior to other races, then you can count me out.
