Sermons about Intercession

I once read that he made it a habit to read scripture on his knees. And it is not Fund-raisers, Polished Communicators, or Building Contractors that will build the Church of the Living God...but INTERCESSORS! George Burnap echoed the same concept when he wrote: God governs the universe by fixed and uniform laws, not only for the sake of order, but for human good... The fulfillment of every human desire would break up this order, and bring everything into disorder and confusion. That tension is resolved by being persistent, yet accepting God's answer when it finally comes.
