Gospel of Justification in Christ : Where Does the Church Stand Today? Perfect 9780802826909

Even as Jesus was delivered to death on account of our offences, so He was raised from the dead on account of our righteousness. Scripture declares, 'And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to His purpose. He will show it to other men.'

This is not the teaching of James 2. In addition, the person and every work of Jesus Christ has as its purpose to reveal the righteousness of God. But we defend the doctrine against the attacks.

What Does the Roman Catholic Church Believe About Justification?

What has been taught is the truth of justification as generally understood by the church for some 2000 years, but especially as developed, formulated and taught by the church of the Reformation over against the pernicious errors of Rome and the Arminians. And so at times like that, we reach for a certain category of gifted people called poets. Good works are the fruits of justification in two ways.
