Parents Concerned About LGBTQ, Racial Equality Surveys Sent To 6th Graders

We must never make excuses for those disparities in our schools or lower our expectations for any students.

How to advance racial equality in schools?

The first critical step of this journey is expanding your racial consciousness. Asian women are twice as likely as white women to die in pregnancy. White Democrats are also far more likely than white Republicans and independents to express support for the Black Lives Matter movement.

Parents Concerned About LGBTQ, Racial Equality Surveys Sent To 6th Graders

This was only one of a wide range of topics the students chose and surveys were sent to an audience of students and adults.

Unequal Opportunity: Race and Education

Musing about this tension, she shared the questions she asks herself as she designs curriculum: If I do talk about race, will it offend anyone? Whatever the approach, we must acknowledge the need to offer these kinds of curricular and pedagogical strategies to teachers throughout their professional development experiences. These decisions include how students learn, how students are taught, how learning is measured, how teachers are supported with professional development, how funds are allocated based on district priorities, and how effectively the community at large is engaged around student learning.

Becoming Upended: Teaching and Learning about Race and Racism with Young Children and Their Families

Results like these from Hartford, coupled with other similar efforts in metro areas and small towns across the country, despite support from federal or many state leaders, suggest that where there is a will, there is a way to achieve the educational benefits of diverse schools and classrooms in a manner that will benefit all students.

Education Equity Initiative

Among whites, however, similar shares of those younger than 30 51%, those ages 30 to 49 51% and those ages 50 to 64 50% say they have heard a lot about the Black Lives Matter movement. We encourage staff, parents, carers and stakeholders to utilise the resources provided; to be aware of, and peacefully stand against, racism; to be race conscious; and treat all people, irrespective of skin colour, race or gender equally and fairly.

Racial Inequities: What Schools Can Do

Lopez, Dog Whistle Politics New York: Oxford University Press, 2014 ; P. How he and others excel or fail in the classroom will dictate the contours of our society in the next generation: who contributes to the commonwealth, who is a burden to society; who pays taxes, who goes to jail; who makes the world a better place, who becomes just another statistic. Schofield, Black and White in School.

4 Practices to Promote Equity in the Classroom

One particularly innovative example can be found in New York State, where the commissioner of education now acting U. For this article, two parents whose children were enrolled in Ms.
