25 Thanksgiving Love Poems to Wish Her / Him

The emphasis is on the cold winter air and the time of year, which Hughes conveys in a few memorable stanzas here. The English poet Felicia Dorothea Hemans 1793-1835 heads this list of great Thanksgiving poems because she was born the earliest; but her poem about the arrival of the Pilgrim Fathers on the shores of Massachusetts in 1620 seems like a fitting place to begin this pick of poems about the Thanksgiving holiday.

During this time, we have made some of our learning resources freely accessible. There are a large variety of such poems available on the Internet that can go with your desired messages and there are people who write poems themselves as well so if you are one of them then it is the ideal time of the year to use your skills and win the heart of your loved ones. I got the book Centuries of Meditations recently and it overwhelmed me completely, it is the best book I have ever read and the best thing I own.
