It is often at times that this can lead to misrepresentation or confusion when attempting to understand what the beadwork is communicating. Today, militaries all over the world stamp their right foot when saluting, as do the Evzons the ex-royal Greek guard, in their traditional costume which includes leather shoes with a tassel that shakes when they stamp.

Zulu Culture

For example, men may want to learn so that they can set right any wrongs or insults made towards them.
