Global literary theory: the texts

The Jews, on the other hand, had an absolute right to an Israeli state that was not to be circumscribed by the rights of others.

History of the Palestinians

Paying the large landowners for purchases made or paying compensation to tenants on the land is not the same as compensating a people. Arab attacks on Jewish settlements were countered by the Hagana.

University of Toronto Libraries

Jews claim a heritage through Abraham's son Isaac, born to him by his wife Sarah.

It has been repassed no less than twenty-eight times since that first date. Therefore, one might consider them to be the indigenous residents. .

Do Arabs and Jews realize how much they look alike?

The outcome of those negotiations would be the birth of the State of Palestine. There are several aspects to consider in answering that question honestly. Churchills creation of the Kingdom of Jordan was an illegal move, a crime in international law which has never been answered for.

Global literary theory: the texts

Many incidents and issues of violence occurred across Palestine between 1922 and 1930.

Demographic history of Palestine (region)

We believe that human values and rights are indivisible and that the fight against antisemitism should go hand in hand with the struggle on behalf of all oppressed peoples and groups for dignity, equality and emancipation.

Global literary theory: the texts

To subject a people so minded to unlimited Jewish immigration, and to steady financial and social pressure to surrender the land, would be a gross violation of the principle just quoted.
